

Booking Terms and Conditions

Completing your booking with Camphill Milton Keynes Communities (CMKC) signifies your agreement to the below terms of Refunds and Cancellation. All profits support CMKC to provide continued education for our service users and the maintenance of our facilities to offer further outreach course.

Bookings are non-refundable and only transferable at the discretion of CMKC. Any workshops that you are unable to attend cannot be refunded and cannot be reallocated.

Courses may be rescheduled/cancelled by CMKC if the minimum number of required participants is not met. Notification of a possible reschedule/cancellation will be sent to participants three-working days before the first workshop of the term, in this instance only, will refunds be issued in full if a course is rescheduled/cancelled.

Photographs and/or video will be taken during this course.

As a registered charity, it can sometimes be necessary to share photos and videos of our community outreach in printed matter, social media, press releases and funding applications. By taking part in this event you grant CMKC full rights to use the images resulting from the photography/video filming to help achieve our charitable aims.
